EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Antitrust proceedings aimed at more than fifty of the principal oil companies of the United States, including all the Standard companies, were instituted by the government in Federal Court here today.

The action in equity, instituted by Atty.-Gen. Stone and Sied in District Court, here by Edwin Olson, United States Attorney, asks an injunction to restrain the companies named from further violations of the antitrust section of the Act which is charged against them.

Oil patent contracts of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, cited by Atty.-Gen. Stone in his complaint, are described as legal and honest, have been in effect for ten years and never before have been attacked. Col. R. W. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors of the Standard Oil Company, said tonight in a formal statement committing on the government's charges. He offered to present every contract to which his company is a party to the courts for adjudication as to their propriety and equity.

THE CHARGES

The complaint charges that the oil companies, in combination to restrain gasoline production by pooling rights in violation of the Antitrust Act, and also charged "a combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce among the several States and with foreign nations in gasoline, kerosene and other hydrocarbon products."

Five companies were named as primary defendants in the action. They are the Standard companies of Indiana and New Jersey and the Standard Development Company, the Texas Company and the Gasoline Products Company. The other companies made a party to the action were the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, and were charged with being in the combination as the result of accepting licenses from one or more of the primary defendants."

The action, one of the most sweeping directed against the oil industry in years, sets forth that "pressure" or "cracking" methods of distilling gasoline has increased the yield from a given amount of stock by 50 to 90 per cent and that all the patents on the process have long since expired, the primary defendants have pooled patents covering minor improvements and are attempting to extort huge sums from the manufacturers of gasoline in the guise of royalties and by means of certain

Prohibition Plank Agreed Upon By Democrat Platform-Builders

ENFORCEMENT DECLARED FOR

Committee Omits Reference to Volstead Act

Slow Progress is Made in Drafting Document

Members Still Far Apart on League and Klan

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE!
NEW YORK, June 25.—Only one of the three highly controversial planks in the Democratic platform had been agreed upon late tonight by the resolutions subcommittee of eleven after more than six hours of deliberation.

This provision relates to law enforcement. It is a general reference to the Eighteenth Amendment and the enforcement statutes, but is a strong declaration for general enforcement of law and order, with the exception of the Klan administration for what is described as its failure in this direction.

Later tonight other planks agreed upon provided:

A Federal corrupt practices act, Federal regulation and control of the anthracite coal industry and of other corporations or combinations controlling the necessities of life.

Immediate independence for the Philippines.

Enforcement of legislation to prohibit the "watering" of stock.

ARM PLANE, TAKEN UP

The agricultural relief plank was taken up late in the night. Senator King had drafted a plan along the lines of the Curtis-Alvord bill for creation of a great national armament commission.

At midnight Chairman Cummings issued a statement saying:

"We have been discussing in addition to the corrupt practices act, the League of Nations and some planks in regard to women, and provisions regarding postal clerks' wages. We are tentatively preparing planks on all these subjects, and the committee contains nothing of material importance.

"The League of Nations is an important plank. The subcommittee expects to report to the full committee at about 10 o'clock tomorrow.

If we find that we are not harmonious on any crucial subjects, we may prepare alternative plans for submission to the full committee."

HAD ALL NIGHT JOB

Admittedly the committee had before it an all-night job.

As the committee began its deliberations an anti-Klan demonstration was in progress in the convention in Madison Square Garden a block and a half away. Despite this, a majority of the platform builders were opposed to report a plank for religious freedom without specifically naming the Invisible Empire.

Some of the more determined opponents of the Klan still were in, however, and the discussion would be taken to the convention unless the platform committee, which must pass upon the draft of its subcommittee of eleven, agreed to the withdrawal of H. Moore of Ohio and Representatives of the Minnesota and Wisconsin delegations, which have submitted planks denouncing the Klan by name, vizied the committee room to make a final appeal to some of the members privately.

After the Klan, the most troublesome proposition before the subcommittee was the planking with the League of Nations. It was decided to take up the most controversial subjects first in an effort to dispose of them before the committee had become fatigued by their long hours and arduous labors.

LEAGUE UP FIRST

Under this arrangement the League question came up first and after an hour and a half of discussion the subcommittee of eleven was named to take several proposals which had been submitted and whip them into shape for consideration. Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, and George Wilson, a League advocate, headed the committee of three.

Tasks instructions to the subcommittee were to take the first sample of the plank submitted by former Senator Constance John H. Clarke, as president of the League of Nations Non-Partisan Association; add to that the whole League plank submitted at public session today by Dr. Jerome of New York, who was a member of the Dawes Reparations Commission and to write in suggested methods for American co-operation with others in preserving the peace of the world.

The first paragraph of the Clarke plank follows:

"It is of supreme importance to civilization and mankind that America be an example kept on the right side of the greatest moral question of all time, and therefore the Democratic party renews its declaration of confidence in the ideals of world peace, in the League of Nations and in the world court of justice as together constituting the supreme effort of the statesmanship and religious conviction of our time to organize the world for peace."

Chairman Cummings made hourly reports to newspaper correspondents who crowded the corridors outside of the convention rooms. At the end of the first hour he announced discussion of the League without decision, explaining that much of the time had been taken up with the presentation of the former service men.

BETTS IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Arizona Commissioner Will be Candidate

Nomination Will be Sought as Democrat

Aspirant to Give Incumbent Lively Chase

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
PHOENIX, June 26.—Ames A. Betts, who has concluded to toss his hat into the ring for Democratic nomination as Governor, is likely to add considerable zest to the campaign within his party. At least, he makes it necessary for G. W. P. Hunt to bestir himself, for he furnishes a candidate of rather formidable sort.

Merely as a matter of comparison, it should be stated that Betts, two years ago, was re-elected as corporation commissioner by a majority of 16,772, while Hunt's majority was only 6711. Maricopa county alone gave Betts a majority of 4136. He is considered about the best campaigner in the State and his campaign is on in all times while he is holding office. He is a member of many lodges and societies and one Phoenix fraternal lodge bears the name, "Ames A. Betts." He was the first president of the Phoenix Rotary Club and is chairman of the board of trustees of the Phoenix Union High School. His acquaintance in the State is believed to be even broader than Hunt's, while his personal popularity is even more greater. He is considered a man in the public game.

CAREER TRACED

Training in the art of politics was gained when Betts was a railroad man. He came from his native State of Missouri to Colorado, where he became cashier of a bank and Mayor of his village. When he dropped into the ranks as a telegraph operator, station agent and traveling freight and passenger agent, coming to Arizona in the last-name capacity for the Western Electric system, with offices at Prescott and Phoenix. Then he became rate expert for the State Corporation Commission, of which he later became a member.

There is understanding that the new candidate has good friends who are in the highest strata in the primary and in the main campaign, at need. He had this same support last campaign, in which large sums must have been expended for another candidate for the Governorship in a quarter of the publicity, in which he was the center. Claim was made by his opponent that he and Commissioner Johnson formed a duet in handing the important rate and franchise questions, but he could not before them. Mr. Johnson's term expires with this year and Commissioner Loren Vaughn, the third member, with two years still before him in office, is running for the office of Justice of the Supreme Court. Mr. Betts will not resign, as he has four years of office service in the event he fails in this latest ambition.

LARGE FIELD ENTERED
The commissionership to be vacated by Johnson is a plum that has many reaching for it. The announced candidates in the Democratic field are: W. D. Clegg, of Miami, for years one of the administration leaders in the State Senate, ranking as a Progressive or Labor member; Charles E. McMillan of Ray, a conservative Senator; E. C. Rainaker, a state expert, formerly with the Corporation Commission; Glenn Coffey, a former legislator from Greenlee county, but now resident in Phoenix; Raymond L. Phillips, former State Treasurer; Scott White, of Cochise county, who lately resigned from the United States Land Office in Phoenix, a pioneer Coloradoan with the Greens copper interests. No Republicans were announced.

Minor Blasts on Mississippi Excite Seamen

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Exploding of a number of short-circuited thermostats in the flooded magazines of the battleship Mississippi caused some excitement and nervousness among the crew while the big battler, which was recently visited by a disaster in which forty-eight men lost their lives, was at Los Angeles. Her return to San Francisco last week, it was announced today at Twelfth Naval District headquarters here. As each explosion was reported to require time to remain until the cause was investigated, there was no damage done apart from that to the thermostats.

RUSSIAN REFUGEES TO FARM IN ALBERTA

FORMER GENERAD IN CZAR'S ARMY HEADS PARTY IN PILGRIMAGE

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

VANCOUVER (B. C.) June 25.—When the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia, arrived from the Orient recently she brought 116 Russian refugees headed by Gen. D. Drunovskiy, once a general in the Czar's army.

The members of the party expect to remain in Canada on their way to Watskawkin, Alberta, where they will engage in farming on property already purchased by them.

There were also 200 Japanese, many of them brides, on their way to the United States, before the exclusion clause becomes effective. En route one Japanese woman gave birth to a son, and it was impossible, owing to the name of the baby after the ship, so they honored the ship's doctor and the baby now bears the name of Anson Matsu Futuru.

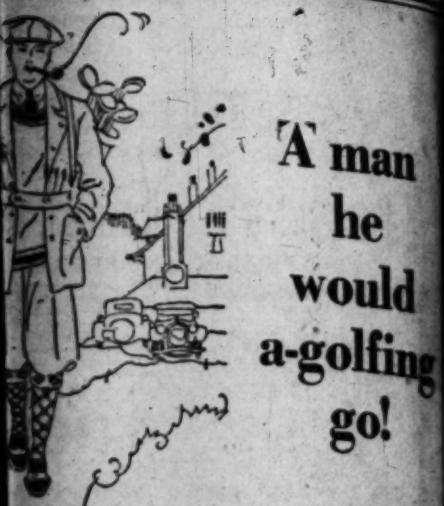

PARIS AIR EXPOSITION

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
PARIS, June 25.—Plans for the aeronautical exposition, which will be held at the Grand Palace here from December 5 to 21 of this year, have been begun.

The Affair at Othman's

By WILL PAYNE

Frederick Othman, half Turk and half mystic, has a house in the hills above Los Angeles, where he lives for a retinue of servants, in a mansion whose walls are covered with pictures completely filling one wall of a great room set aside for the painting. Nelson Harlow, a fashionably dressed man, who has been a close companion to Othman, has stolen $16,800 from Othman. Harlow is a man who is secret planning to marry Flora Marconi, a society girl, the daughter of the late John D. Marconi, father of Flora. He has bargained with Harlow to divorce Flora, a clairvoyant affair, to be paid between Stamford Marconi and Marie Othman, his wife. Othman, who resides in a hotel run by Kate Chadek in Mono County, has a secret admirer, while Harlow, a man of the world, is reported to be a rival to Othman. Othman is a rascal, a scoundrel, who has up to now been up to his neck in his sins, but he has turned over a new leaf, and has repudiated his past. He has given up his gambling debts, has sold his house, and has given up his outstanding obligation, making Marconi his unwilling debtor. Marconi, worried, comes to Othman, who is now a changed man, a gentleman; induces him to call on Othman, and Othman, who is now a changed man, is not to be put to the wall, but rather offers to finance his beauties. Marconi, agreeably dressed, is a man of the world, and is meeting his old friend and Othman—the Turk who used to finance an unknown's house that he could not afford. Othman, who is now a changed man, is not to be put to the wall, but rather offers to finance his beauties. a-golfing go!

He put himself in a winning mood! He wore the clothes that gave him freedom of mind. Certain important materials he first disposed of in the May's Store, and he went to the links in at-any-cost way.

Clothes were cool—comfortable! They were good looking. He knew it! Soon he does, good-looking clothes are as keen satisfaction to him as his feminine partner. You choose as personal preference.

Linen, $5.00 to $7.50; Palm Beach, $6.00. Wool, $5.00 to $10.00. Hose—$2.35 to $10.00. Sweaters—$6.00 to $40.00. Shirts—$2.00 to $6.00.

It's the Golfer! It's new! It's Cool! It's exceedingly smart! It's an imported Swiss reddit. And it's only $6! Light in weight, broad of brim, Leinart style. It is ideal for veterans and all others. If you were the first to wear one, come in before another game of golf and be fitted.

SANTA MONICA

A GREAT NATURAL RESOURCE

THIS IS WHAT NATURE GAVE LOS ANGELES COUNTY—WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO WITH IT?

The mountains and three miles of coastline in the picture are in the city of Los Angeles. The principal part of the Palisades is in Santa Monica. All of Santa Monica Bay—17 miles wide by 12 miles inland—is in Los Angeles county.

Hundreds of thousands of people will visit Santa Monica Bay this summer.

How many of them will give serious and earnest thought to their share of responsibility for this great natural gift.

This giant resource should be made to pay dividends of happiness, health, uplift, and prosperity.

It should be the greatest yachting rendezvous in the West.

It should be the greatest hotel and society center in the West.

It should be the greatest recreation place for all the people in the West.

It should have the greatest boulevards in the world running to it—with all the wide and beautiful streets and roads that it is possible to build running around and through it.

Its sands and shores should be conserved and beautified in every possible way—every foot of them is more precious than rubies and fine gold.

The bay should have a magnificent drive and a great promenade along its entire shore.

Millions of people will soon be living within an hour of this shore.

One of the world's great cities is just far enough in the background to avoid spoiling the picture.

Can words express the gratitude that all the people should have for this great blessing?

And what is each one of us doing to see that this gift is properly developed and preserved for ourselves, our guests, our children and our children's children?

Roads and more roads—streets and more streets—wide boulevards and mile-a-minute limited trains—conserved and protected sands—a great breakwater and yacht harbor for yachting and water sports that will entertain hundreds of thousands of people at a time in this great natural amphitheater of the sea.

Hotels and more hotels, the finest that the geniuses of the twentieth century can conceive and produce—all these are essential and vital—not twenty years from now, but now—for the economy, prosperity, recreation, uplift and happiness of the people of Los Angeles county, their annual hundreds of thousands of guests and the many thousands more that would come if these things were accomplished.

A GREAT NATURAL RESOURCE

Is This What Nature Gave Los Angeles County—What Are You Going to Do With It?

The mountains and three miles of coastline in the picture are in the city of Los Angeles. The principal part of the Palisades is in Santa Monica. All of Santa Monica Bay—17 miles wide by 11 miles inland—is in Los Angeles county.

Hundreds of thousands of people will visit Santa Monica Bay this summer.

How many of them will give serious and earnest thought to their share of responsibility for this great natural gift.

This giant resource should be made to pay vast dividends of happiness, health, uplift, and prosperity.

It should be the greatest yachting rendezvous in the West.

It should be the greatest hotel and society center in the West.

NORTHWEST HAS PASSED CRISIS

Business on Firm Foundation After Trying Period

Gross Exaggeration Creates False Position

Real Situation Made Plain; Story of "Come-back"

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

DULUTH (Minn.). June 25.—Southern California is not the only section of the country affected by grossly exaggerated stories of business conditions. The Northwest, notably North Dakota and Montana, has had some bad advertising in recent years.

The Duluth Herald in a lead editorial sets forth the true facts, which, seen in the light of keen analysis, will put up entirely different picture upon a situation that has been misinterpreted.

The Duluth Herald says:

"The recent opportunity to assess the situation there has given occasion for some very encouraging deductions about it. Anybody who makes a careful survey of these States will find these facts to be true."

"First, that the foundation on which the ultimate prosperity of this section will be built is utterly sound now, and will remain sound; that appearances to the contrary have dealt with superficial conditions—a compound of human mistakes, man-made hazards and climatic abnormalities."

"Second, that the bad advertising referred to has been grossly exaggerated, and has been based on misinterpretation of ignorance and a process of magnifying liabilities and overlooking assets."

"Third, that this district has been suffering very real pains, but that they did not come from any deep-seated disease, but from superficial disorders."

"Fourth, that already these pains have very greatly moderated, that they are well on their way to utter disappearance, and that, in a word, North Dakota and Montana are and is fast nearing a state of exuberant health."

CONCERNING BANK FAILURES

"The nation, for instance, has heard much about the bank failures in this region."

"But how many know that all these failures represent only a part of the financial health of the banks of the region? How many know that one reason for it was that when deflation came this district had several times as many banks as it really needed? How many know that a great majority of these banks that failed were hardly banks at all, but mere 'crossroads' money-lending shops, bearing a title they had deserved?"

"And, in addition, how many know that with all these weaker institutions shaken out, the stability of the real banks and of the banking situation generally remains utterly unimpaired? Yet these are facts which the country ought to know it."

"North Dakota is rapidly coming valveng. Its people are aroused and are determined, now they have found the way to come back quickly. They have been recovering from the fever of radicalism that came out of their troubles. They are well aware of the errors of the past and are determined to correct them, in which they are having the expert and practical help of the State Agricultural Department, which is guiding them into the pursuit of better and more scientific farming and pricing at low, and be made to yield a good return on the investment."

STATION IN MONTANA

"Montana, which also has had hard knocks and its evil advertising, is also rapidly coming back, and a prosperous future opens before it. The banks there could produce enough products to the nation, and now that the way is found its production will increase enormously. What has been said about the banks generally applies to the greater portion of the State of Montana. The weak ones have gone, the strong ones remain, and the banking situation is far sounder than it was before the trouble began."

"The president of the University of Montana recently made the statement to a party of visitors that farmer can get a quicker and more substantial return on a small investment in any part of the State than in any other State. Mistakes have been made, but they are known and they are being corrected. The one great mistake of encouraging individual farmers to go into business is being rectified. Now they are carefully selecting the farmers they bring in, and they do not hesitate to say that they will be the best of any real farmer who will use right methods and take sound advice."

"Even the bad advertising for which hasty eastern writers have been responsible has accomplished much for it has been the policy of these States a vigorous determination to show the world in a militant way that these critics have been wrong."

"The Herald also deals with these facts at some length because it believes them to be vitally important, not only to these States but to the whole Northwest, including Duluth, and to the country at large."

PESSIMISM UNWARRANTED

"Pessimism about the future of these States is utterly unwarranted. Their foundations are deep, solid and permanent. The super-storms have passed away. Their mists have faded into distance. The clouds of the past will not be repeated."

"The process of correcting these errors will multiply the prosperity and contentment of the people of these States. Ninety per cent of the rest of the country has already come are things of history, by learning from which the people of these States will avoid many grief in the future."

"The North is coming back fast. Its afflictions are largely of the past. Courage has replaced fear, optimism has supplanted pessimism, experimentation has given way to sound and settled practice."

"A section that has passed through its season of adversity and that has intelligence enough to acquire wisdom from its troubles, the rest of the country will be furnished by the Department of Commerce."

The many articles wanted are as far reaching as the territory from which the requests are received and include ferromanganese,

GAME OF GIANTS

Powerful Railroad Combinations Give and Take; Shippers Profit by New Agreements

Conjecture over the identity of the Michiavelli who has frustrated the attempts of two powerful railroad combinations to enter Los Angeles in the last three months is rife among Southern California shippers and railroad men. They are unwilling to name their man outright, but gossip does center on a high Southern Pacific official and his associates who learned the game of politics in the old "Espana" school when California was railroad country.

No ranking disturbs the serenity of the Los Angeles shippers even though two new transcontinental lines have been lost to them at the expense of the contractors by grossly exaggerated stories of business conditions. The Northwest, notably North Dakota and Montana, has had some bad advertising in recent years.

The Duluth Herald in a lead editorial sets forth the true facts, which, seen in the light of keen analysis, will put up entirely different picture upon a situation that has been misinterpreted.

The Duluth Herald says:

The agreement by which the Western Pacific contracts to handle all the traffic of the two roads for a period of fifty years is the result of a single device to settle the dispute between the two railroads.

The two railroads are to be merged into a single entity, the Western Pacific, to be controlled by the two railroads.

Value of Curtailing Production is Shown by General Position

5 per cent a substantial amount of earnings for the six-month period was carried over to the surplus account.

GENERAL DISPATCH
NEW YORK, June 25.—Although motor industry has been in general a dull season, it is in a sound financial condition.

Manufacturers are in splendid standing and the companies are in a favorable position.

To demonstrate the wisdom of manufacturers in curtailing production when they did, the following is given for the stock market. The information can be given in the field. It was shown that first demands for production still came in, but beginning to decline, and this may be the upturn. Within the weeks there should be a new offering. The company is in a favorable position.

At the Ford Motor

Company, the plants are now on a five-day basis the plants being closed for vacation at the end of the week. This will be followed by the end of the month, when the five-day work week is to continue. If prompt action is taken, the market will be effect for twelve weeks.

On Saturday off will count as a vacation, and will be followed by the end of the month, when the five-day work week is to continue. If prompt action is taken, the market will be effect for twelve weeks.

URGES ANOTHER WORLD PARLEY

Good-Will Conference Assets
War Menace LivesDawes Report Paves Way if Nations Go AheadCity Club Hears Philadelphia
Man's Economic Theory

Advocating calling another Washington conference to consider inter-Ally debts and the question of armaments, J. Henry Scattergood, prominent business man of Philadelphia and delegate from that city to the International Goodwill Conference at the Pacific Palisades, told the City Club yesterday that the report of the Dawes Commission "has placed the world on the right path toward the solution of international problems."

"It required the business men of the Dawes Commission to bring the world to a knowledge of the situation which politicians so long had hesitated to reveal," said Mr. Scattergood.

EUROPE DEAD-LOCKED

"With the adoption of the report of the Dawes Commission, we find Europe deadlocked," continued the speaker. "Even when it is put into operation we shall not have gone all the way toward a real settlement of the European problems. The world must face now the whole problem of inter-Ally debts, and tie up with them both is the problem of the world disarmament. These three problems are closely associated because if the nations now having great armies insist on a continuation of those armies, we can easily envisage a situation ahead that is loaded with dynamite."

"Now wars will come out of the same causes that brought on the war we are under consideration made that will result, first, in a reduction of the reparations down to the point of the possible, secondly, the reduction of the inter-Ally debts, and, thirdly, the reduction of armaments. The key to the whole situation comes back to the ultimate creditor nation, the United States," continued the speaker. "Soon or later we must face the problem of our responsibility with regard to these debts and our opportunity to utilize them as a means of making a settlement in Europe through the trading off of these debts for a disarmament policy, a reduction of the reparations claimed down to the possible and reduction of all inter-Ally debts."

MUST CONSIDER FRANCE

"It is unfair to expect France to do all the work and make no more sacrifices ourselves," said the speaker. "If we should demand of France all that we have a legal right to, it would take from her more than half of all she ever will recover from Germany. And it is not true that England is not interested in her part, too, and that would mean that France would have to pay out of her own pocket more than all of the costs of the devastated areas repairs, besides her own debts. It would be an injustice that the peoples of the United States and of Great Britain would not want to see in-

California Retailers Elect H. A. Ballentine for Year's President; Ball Ends Convention

H. A. Ballentine of Hanan and Sons, a San Franciscan, will head the California Shoe Retailers' Association during the coming year. He was elected yesterday by delegates to the sixth annual convention, which has met at the Biltmore since Monday.

Other officers are: Paul A. Jergens, of Jergens Walk-Overs Shop, Los Angeles; first vice-president, L. B. Young of Young's Shoe Stores, Los Angeles; second vice-president, and Melville Kaufman of Somers and Kaufman, San Francisco.

The convention closed last night with a banquet and ball at the Biltmore. Today, as an aftermath, a golf tournament will be held at the Los Angeles Country Club.

Yves L. Follette, special representative of the Harvard Bureau of Business Research, addressed the convention on "The Cost of Shoe Retailing in 1923." Commodity rates occupied the rest of the afternoon.

The new board of directors for the association is made up of Max Streicher, Dick Mansfield, H. A. Ballentine, Frank More, Melville Kaufman, Harry Loeoy, A. B. Young, Carol Wiles, Fred Kayser, Frank C. C. Covell, Al Goldstein, C. H. Poston, Russell Werner, Harry Gilson and Michel Levy.

HOSIERY HERE IS WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD

Three-fifths of an ounce for $25! Not platinum or gold! No; stockings! Politely called hose.

What are claimed to be the lightest weight hand-made gossamer silk stockings ever made, the product of Lantusson of Paris, were yesterday one of the feature displays at the National Shoe Retailers' Association convention at the Biltmore Hotel.

Part of the 3,000 different kinds of hose brought to Los Angeles by A. P. Brown of London, representing a number of European manufacturers, the stockings were picked by Marcella Arnold and Charles C. Covell of Los Angeles.

The pair worn by Miss Arnold weighed exactly three-tenths of an ounce each. The embroidered ones by Miss Leonard are a fraction of an ounce heavier.

The Los Angeles demands the best, particularly in the more expensive hose than those of New York or Boston, and that is why we are displaying this costly apparel," Brown declared. "In addition to the only in the perfect collection in the Los Angeles store, such thin stockings are worn. Only a few pairs of such stockings are turned out by Lantusson in a week for a very select trade."

Mellinger said the youth told him he found himself "half broke" after returning to Los Angeles from a trip to New York. One day, the report continued, Maldonado struck upon the bright idea of selling vegetables, a profession he had followed in his home town of Yulee, Fla.

The youth had no funds with which to purchase the necessary equipment.

He wandered on until he came upon a truck loaded with vegetables.

While the owner was making a delivery, Mellinger hopped into the driver's seat and piloted the car to a nearby restaurant where he sold the vegetables.

He continued his occupation until he landed in Judge Archibald's court yesterday. Mellinger said.

All in the report stated, Maldonado stole a total of forty cases of vegetables, consisting of bacon, butter, two hams, twelve slices of bacon and miscellaneous crates of vegetables and fruits. Judge Archibald continued the case for two weeks and remanded the boy to the County Jail.

Mrs. E. M. Lazard representing the Council of Jewish Women, had just finished her contribution by saying that the Jewish women have just commenced an "every-woman-vote" campaign and she remarked that the women of the community of the days before woman's suffrage are banished today.

Mrs. John C. Urquhart representing the California Federation of Women's Clubs made a brief speech on all the women to enter actively into political life.

Mrs. Orsatti, who was convicted on a charge of bribery in connection with Federal prohibition law enforcement, came when Mr. Dennison was informed that Orsatti knew Rinaldo, an automobile found dead in an automobile on a harbor road.

It is believed he may be able to tell of possible enemies of Rinaldo. The information is said to have come from an attorney who was quoted on the matter.

With the announcement of the bringing of Orsatti's name into the case, it was averred that an additional $2064 was extorted from Andre Michelli. This sum was outside of the $2000 Michelli said he paid Rinaldo to "fix" a liquor charge against him.

The $2064 was extorted later, Michelli declared, on Rinaldo's threat to shoot him. He declared he had to lay the threat to his companion when the threat was made.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Dennison said he expected to lay certain phases of the case before the grand jury today.

How Henry C. Maldonado, 17 years of age, conceived a unique idea for raising funds to replenish his diminished financial store was revealed yesterday in Judge Archibald's court, where Henry was arraigned on a charge of grand larceny. Henry was accused of stealing a truck loaded with vegetables belonging to the Rivers Brothers Produce Company.

The youth's asserted haphazard financial career was brought to the court's attention in the reports of Probation Officer Mellinger, who was assigned to investigate the case. According to Mellinger, Henry admitted taking about seven automobile trucks in addition to that belonging to Rivers Brothers.

Mellinger said the youth told him he found himself "half broke" after returning to Los Angeles from a trip to New York. One day, the report continued, Maldonado struck upon the bright idea of selling vegetables, a profession he had followed in his home town of Yulee, Fla.

PORT PARK PLAN OPPOSED

Point Firm Residents See Property Damages;
Council Body Also Hears Backers

Ten property owners out of thirty holding seaview lots on Point Firm, overlooking Los Angeles Harbor and the Pacific, protested yesterday to the public welfare committee of the City Council against expending public money on the creation of the proposed Cabrillo Park and playground unless they are compensated for damage which may result to their property.

Representatives of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, the San Pedro Realty Board, church schools, Y.W.C.A., the Board of Harbor Commissioners and fraternal organizations, all expressed themselves as strongly favoring the park, E. C. Griffith presented the case of the residents, while C. J. Golden, president of the Board of Harbor Commissioners, was the principal speaker for the majority. The committee took the question under advisement.

Mr. Griffith contended that his principles, on the strength of assistance given them by various Los Angeles citizens, invested considerable sums in the acquisition of water-front rights, for which they should be compensated if these were damaged or taken away. Pending an opinion from the City Attorney's office, he advised.

No specific sum for Cabrillo Park was set aside in the $1,500,000 voted for parks and playgrounds, but it was estimated that the cost of the proposed project would be far more than the estimated $1,000,000.

YOUNG ARTISTS SHARE HONORS

Singer, Pianist and Violinist
Triumph at KHJ

Rendition of Three Girls is Proof of Artistry

Humor Touch is Provided in Uncle Josh Talk

BY CLAIRE FORBES CRANE

How quickly the atmosphere of a room becomes charged with the personalities gathered within its walls. In no instance is this more apparent than in the KHJ studio. Every night the mood changes.

There was a poem and ceremony at KHJ last night, no flash of a meteor, nor Old World formality; the studio merely radiated the sweet friendly happiness and joy of life sent forth by three young American artists who made up the larger portion of the program.

And because they were Americans, young and gifted, and from this community, one loved them specially. The trio of musicians was composed of Virginia Florhi, who arranged the program, Doris Chilcott, pianist, and Sylvia Harms, violinist.

Virginia Florhi's voice is well known to the radio family for its purity of tone and ease of technical display. Last evening, accompanied by Doris Chilcott, she sang first of all two eighteenth century pieces—Handel's "When Rides Me Bind My Hair" and "O Sleep, Why Dost Thou Leave Me" by Handel. In the latter number, which is traditional for its long, drawn-out phrases, Miss Florhi's fine breath control was worthy of comment.

It seems curious that a slender, young girl artist should be able to throw into Rimsky-Korsakoff's "The Flight of the Bumble Bee" almost savage glitter that is the keynote of the opera from which it is taken. Miss Florhi, however, accomplished this, and left her audience electrified by its splendor.

Her remaining numbers were frankly coloratura, including the well-known but ever loved "Caro Nome," by Verdi.

OTHERS TALENTED

Doris Chilcott, who it will be remembered, is a coming young composer as well as interpreter, besides playing sympathetically for her sister artists, gave a noteworthy reading of Brahms' "Rhapsody." 2:30. Miss Chilcott's style of playing, which is more or less roguish, is appropriate for Brahms, whose music demands vigor and straightforwardness of style to disclose its beauty.

Sylvia Harms, violinist, the other of the three, made up of the evening's program, from her instrument a fuller and rounder sonority than is given most feminine performers to produce. The "Mazurka de Concert" by Muzio was played with the abandon and verve of a genuine artist.

Humor is the ingredient of humanity which recognizes no creed, time or place, but a drop of which poured into the artistic atmosphere of hatred or intolerance acts as an antidote to the boiling mass. Thus one is thankful to such men as Fred M. Mitchell, who in the role of Uncle Josh, can make the night bright and cast into the air drop after drop of the rural character's quinic philosophy and experiences.

TALKS ON BEAUTY

Of inestimable educational value with the added factor of interest, partially would describe the lecture on "The Art of Beauty" given by Max Baumgardt, he has been delivering at KHJ and the third of which he gave last night. Max Baumgardt brings to these dissertations the same broad conception of his subject that supported his talks on astronomy.

H. V. Kaltenborn, associate editor of the Brooklyn Eagle and first radio speaker to make a tour of the radio circuit, talked for five minutes last night on the beauties of California in a fascinating manner. The possibilities of his subject prohibited him from more than merely outlining his observations within the limited period allotted.

The matinee musicals given through the courtesy of Barker Brothers, true to its traditions and ideals, were an hour that has resolved itself into an imitation of the type which represents one of the basic factors of civilization. It presented Lucille Bowly, whose appealing quality of voice is the joy of the matinee audience. First Presbyterian Church, where she is soloist. And in the same fashion did she delight her KHJ listeners. Accompanied by Claire P. Conroy, she sang a number of English selections with a texture of voice that was colorful and discriminatingly patterned. Two piano solos, contributed by Claire Forbes Crane concluded the hour.

MORE OF HISTORY

The Children's Hour opened in a manner interesting to all listeners. The lecture was given in the form of a lecture on American history delivered by the tireless and broad-minded Prof. Walter Sylvestre Hertzog. Little Dick Winslow, the juvenile reporter, endeavored to relate his latest adventures. Dick was never at all at ease before the microphone and tells his part with no hesitancy. He was followed by Leonard Tannen, 4-year-old orator, who had a natural prize for platform talents.

for Consideration

C. La Rue, hydraulic engineer of the United States Geodetic Survey, told members of the Chamber of Commerce luncheon in the Biltmore yesterday of the Colorado government surveying down the Colorado River to Grand Canyon. He did not have an opinion regarding the possibility of a dam for the State, but said that information had been obtained to show that "a feasible plan can be worked out" to develop the canyon.

He is now working on the relative value of water sites on the low-water line, and this report, he said, will be published after it is finished. At Washington
he has studied the possibility, he said, of using 6,000,000 acres unclaimed and development of the horsepower of electricity.
Mr. La Rue had traveled
1,000 miles to the head of the tributaries of the Colorado, 1,000 miles were through the Canyon. He took motion pictures with a hand camera of the Canyon trip, and these were shown in the banquet rooms of the hotel to be explained them.

DR. CLIFFORD SMITH wants the generation of boys and girls free from the tyranny of the literary chisel. He disapproves of the arbitrary interpretation upon the superior virtues and deplorables of a list of names and standards inherited from the past.

Mamma and papa and teacher
may not agree with the poet,
but we might as well.

We have been called upon to read and digest "Ivanhoe" and "Robin Hood" and "Westward Ho" at our expense during the past high school term with gratifying results. And I must come through with a crossamination at the hands of a successful victim very well myself.

He made a valiant show of representing them for my culture's sake.

He was hideously exposed for a previous boredom; and finally went down to ignominious defeat.

"Well, you ought to read them anyway, and you can't be a really educated person if you don't and never mind why," appears to be the poorest possible argument.

Ah, yes, and talking about school.
I wonder if it would not be possible to teach the present generation

Every Mother Wants to Know This

EVERY mother wants to know how she can keep her children's dainty little wash clothes from soiling so quickly.

And now she has the answer: Starch with LINIT, the remarkable new starch discovery. Your Grocer sells it.

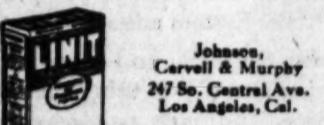

Not only does LINIT make even ordinary cotton goods look and feel like linen, but LINIT eliminates lint, thereby keeping your children's clothes from soiling so quickly.

This is because LINIT is distinctly different from old-fashioned starches. Instead of merely smearing on the surface of the material, LINIT penetrates each thread, helps to prevent wear and prolongs the life of the fabric.

Use LINIT according to directions and you will find it a thin, free-running fluid like water. And use very little of it, for a small amount of LINIT goes much farther than a similar amount of old-fashioned starch.

For this reason the wide-awake housewife finds LINIT to be much more economical.

LINIT costs 10¢ at all Grocers. Get a package and begin the modern way of starching your fabrics. You will never go back to the old-fashioned starching.

Tillamook Cheese
uniformly delicious and rich because it is made by men who take pride in their work

The whole Tillamook valley is interested in making good Tillamook cheese, for that is the sole specialty of this section.

Here you will see modern dairy farms and herds of fine cattle; grassy meadows crossed by mountain streams; here and there immaculate cheese kitchens.

A special law requires that every dairy herd in Tillamook county be regularly tested for health. The cheese kitchens are spotless. Every day our product is tested for flavor and quality.

Is there any wonder that under these ideal conditions the world's finest cheese is made?

Be sure that you get Tillamook; look for the name on every slice and loaf. Write for our recipe book by Alice Bradley of Miss Farmer's School of Cookery, Boston.

CHERRY JAM

Place five pounds of stoned, ripe, firm cherries in a preserving kettle with five pounds of sugar and let stand over night; bring slowly to a boil and boil until a little will form a jelly when dropped on a cold plate. Place in a clean, hot glass jar and seal it.

ASTOR SALAD

Mix in a cold bowl one and a half cupfuls of diced cooked lobster, two-thirds of a cupful of diced, two-thirds of a cupful of peeled and diced ham, two chopped hard-boiled eggs, one chopped pimento, one chopped green pepper, two-chopped ripe olives, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of paprika, and one cupful of tarragon flavored French dressing. Let stand in a cold place for one hour, then place on six cold lettuce covered plates. Cover with mayonnaise, sprinkle with chopped parsley and garnish with peeled cooked shrimps and ripe olives.

BAKED ROCK BASS

Wash, clean and season on the head of four four-pound rock bass. Mix two cupfuls of fine bread crumbs with two-thirds of a cupful of soft butter, the grated rind of half a lemon, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, one teaspoonful of powdered marmalade, a seasoning of salt and pepper, the eggs beaten with two tablespoonsfuls of water. Fill the cleaned bass with the mixture, sew up, score each side in four places and place in the oven for a third of an hour. Cover the bottom of a baking pan with half of a finely chopped onion, one chopped stalk of celery, one cupful of water and a little will form a jelly when dropped on a cold plate. Place in a clean, hot glass jar and seal it.

CUCUMBER AND TOMATO SALAD

Peel and cut in dice three medium-sized cucumbers and mix in a cold bowl rubbed with a clove of crushed garlic with three peeled and diced firm ripe tomatoes, one cupful of finely chopped celery, a seasoning of pepper and salt, and two-thirds of a cupful of French dressing. Place on lettuce-covered plates.

WATERMELON SHERBET

Carefully remove the red part from a watermelon, save the juice and press the pulp through a sieve to remove the seeds. Mix three quarts of the pulp and juice with a cupful of granulated sugar and a lemon and one and a half cupfuls of sugar; pour into a freezer and turn until half frozen; add the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs and finish freezing. Serve in tall glasses.

BAKED CREAM

Wash, clean and season on the head of four four-pound rock bass. Mix two cupfuls of fine bread crumbs with two-thirds of a cupful of soft butter, the grated rind of half a lemon, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, one teaspoonful of powdered marmalade, a seasoning of salt and pepper, the eggs beaten with two tablespoonsfuls of water. Fill the cleaned bass with the mixture, sew up, score each side in four places and place in the oven for a third of an hour. THREE HELD IN GANG ROUND-UP

Arrest of Gunmen Suspects Follows Car Crew

One of Trio Said to Have Told Tale of Crime Orgy

Confession in Many Major Robberies, Police Say

With three suspected gunmen, all familiar figures to the police, under arrest and the capture of several others imminent, authorities yesterday announced that they had broken up at least in part a criminal band responsible for more than fifty major robberies and as many burglaries here in the past year.

A partial confession, it was said by detectives, had been obtained from one of the suspects, William Goolish, 26 years of age, in which he admitted he had "pulled so many jobs" in this city, Hollywood and adjacent cities and towns in the past year that he could not remember all of them. The other two suspects, John McDonald, 26, and James McDaniel, 24, had no confession in any of the crimes, though McDonald has been identified by four recent bandit victims. All are held on suspicion of robbery.

The arrested Goolish and McDonald came shortly after the robbery Tuesday night of W. B. Brody and his wife in front of their home at 1832 Wilcox avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Brody had just returned to their home and Mrs. Brody had climbed out of the machine and was walking to the house when two bandits approached. One of the bandits, Mrs. Brody at the door of her home and demanded that she hand over to him the jewels she was wearing. She screamed and fled into the house.

As the bandits drove away in their machine, Mr. Brody hurried out into the driveway and succeeded in obtaining the license number on the car. He immediately communicated with the police. Detectives Auburn and Keeler traced the automobile number to a garage. There they found the machine had been rented out some hours previous to two men. While the men were quite sure one of the men who had rented the car called over the telephone to say that the car would not be returned until the next day and that in the meantime it would be parked at Fifth and Hill streets.

The officers proceeded to the Hollywood Station. Yesterday the third suspect, Stallings, called at the station with a woman, who asked permission to see Goolish. The officers immediately placed him and the woman under arrest. When Goolish was informed of the woman's arrest, the officers said, he declared he would not talk until she was released and after questioning him the authorities complied with his request.

Mr. and Mrs. Brody identified Goolish and McDonald a short time after their return as the two men who had held them up. Two other persons also partially identified the two suspects.

MILL EMPLOYEES SIGN "GOOD TIMES" PLEDGE

PROSPERITY PICNIC RESULTS IN DEATH KNEEL FOR "DEPRESSION TALK"

A pledge to talk "good times" and to knock "depression talk" was signed by 500 employees, friends and customers of the Nichols Grain and Milling Company, who gathered at Anaheim Landing for a prosperity picnic given by the Orange Brand Club, an employee's organization.

"We're celebrating good business," declared E. Thomas, president of the Orange Brand Club. "Despite unfavorable conditions in the farm market, our sales have grown steadily every month. This picnic is tangible expression of our belief in the stability of the farm market."

Thomas Wardell, an 83-year-old inhabitant of Monrovia, told of the growth of California's agricultural industry during the 10 years he has spent in California. "Since I came here in 1878—before Los Angeles was born," he said, "there has been a rumor every summer that California's farms were hard hit. Yet, whenever I have visited the United States to show more prosperity among its farmers than exists here in Southern California. The farmer is enjoying good crops and good prices. His business has not been seriously retarded, even by the drought and the foot-and-mouth disease."

The newlyweds, W. H. Mink of the Nichols Grain and Milling Company, and his wife, formerly Miss Edith McLaren, were presented with a huge birthday cake decorated with the brilliant orange and white colors of the Orange Brand Club which was made from Orange Brand flour and donated by the Pig 'n Whistle Company.

A lunch made principally from Orange Brand flour was served to over 500 people and barrels of orangeade were given away.

During the afternoon the guests listened to a band concert, watched a ball game and witnessed sports contests. The $1000 cash prize was won by three misses who wore an Orange Brand sack for a suit.

TEXANS MEET SATURDAY

The annual picnic of the Texans of Southern California has been called for Saturday at Sycamore Grove Park. Dr. Ed M. Hinerman, president, and Dr. Charles Hardy, who will be a speaker, Howard Peak, president of the Texas society, is in charge of the picnic.
